<sup>1</sup> Rule
Apprenticeship
and reading in chambers

<sup>36</sup> After passing the Final Examination for the admission of Attorneys-at-Law a student shall in accordance with the Regulations in Schedule III, attend for a period of six months the chambers of an Attorney-at-Law of 8 years standing practicing in Sri Lanka and familiarise himself with the ordinary business of an Attorney-at-Law and shall also attend such Practical Training Course as may be prescribed by the Council. Provided that where, in the case of an Attorney-at-Law student, the Council is satisfied that the student has in a judicial capacity acquired sufficient practical acquaintance with the Principles of Legal procedure, it may dispense with the requirements of the rule.

Barristers must refer to Rule 51

<sup>2</sup> The Final examination pass list will be published within four months after the release of the final examination results.

<sup>3</sup> The students who have registered in Sri Lanka Law College under Rule 51 of the Rules of the Incorporated Council of Legal Education, must complete their examinations before submitting the Notice of Enrolment.

7.
