1. Perera who was the Registrar of a state university was issued with a charge sheet containing several charges. After disciplinary inquiry, the Inquiry Officer held that the charges framed against Perera had not been proved. However, Perera was dismissed from service on a decision taken by the Council of the University without giving any reasons. Perera is now challenging the termination of his service in court.

Upon instituting proceedings, the University informed court that Perera's service was terminated for the reason that he did not have the necessary pre-requisite qualifications to hold the post in question. Perera was not informed of this reason before.

Discuss the merits of the case filed in respect of the termination of Perera's services referring to the relevant principles of law. (50 marks)
